Powerful ammunition for weapons chambered in .45 ACP

The GECO .45 ACP FMJ is designed for sport shooters looking for a high-performance cartridge for training or precision exercises at short and medium ranges. Its 230-grain jacketed projectile guarantees good penetration, stable recoil and regular feeding in all types of compatible semi-automatic weapons.

Consistent ballistic performance

Tested with a 150 mm barrel, this ammunition delivers a muzzle velocity of 260 m/s and an energy of more than 500 joules at the muzzle. Its ballistic profile ensures good target accuracy, even during prolonged use.
