Precision and reliability for sport shooting in compact caliber.

Armored bullet cartridges (FMJ) for handguns and submachine guns.

For sport shooting in compact caliber

The Geco FMJ cartridge in 6.35 Browning meets the requirements of sport shooters looking for reliable, accurate and economical ammunition. Thanks to its armored bullet (Full Metal Jacket), it guarantees smooth feeding in small caliber handguns, while ensuring clean combustion and excellent ballistic stability.

Performance and consistency

Made with selected components and subject to rigorous production controls , these ammunitions benefit from a modern and consistent ignition. Their lightness and regularity make them a suitable choice for extended shooting sessions.

- Standard lead
- Test barrel length: 60 mm
- Speed at 10 m: 205 m/s / 25 m: 201 m/s / 50 m: 193 m/s
- Energy at 10 m: 67 J / 25 m: 65 J / 50 m: 60 J

Used primarily for short-range target shooting , this compact ammunition is also popular for testing older weapons in good condition. Its classic FMJ design minimizes barrel fouling and makes post-shoot cleaning easier.
