The HERA ARMS Straight Pull is the ideal solution for the sports shooter looking for a weapon with the design of an AR15 without seeking to obtain a category B. With its linear rearmament system classifying it in category C, it allows shots accurately at the shooting range. Its absence of block and gas borrowing channel, facilitates cleaning and reduces fouling of the weapon.

Almost all the parts are machined and assembled in the HERA ARMS factories in Germany. This guarantees you a perfect fit of the parts, an excellent quality of finish, and unfailing reliability.
