An innovative strap for even more stability

- Strap serving as an additional point of contact for the rifle with ground anchoring system with its foot
- Provides maximum rigidity to the weapon mounted on its tripod
- Reduces shooter fatigue and the feel of weapon recoil
- Maximum weight supported: 25 kg

Initially dedicated to professional use, the KJI shooting supports allowed unparalleled shooting comfort and reduced fatigue for a shooter who had to keep his position for hours.

Offered to hunters and sport shooters, KJI products allow shooting with incredible precision at ever greater distances.
