Their loud detonation (around 130 dB) will sound the alarm while contributing to intimidating the attacker.

Effective up to 15 meters.

Sold in packs of 5.

The Gomm-Cogne is a rubber buckshot cartridge specially designed for protection, offering an alternative to the use of traditional weapons.

Its projectiles, made of a rubbery material, generate energy capable of neutralizing a potential attacker while minimizing the risk of injury or death.

Rubber buckshot available in 12/67 mm caliber.
