Increase the life of your weapon.

Stil Crin .22LR Aluminum Shock Absorber Shells, also known as Dummy Shells or Dummy Shells , are specially designed to protect your firearm during dry firing sessions. Made from high-quality aluminum, these shells help preserve the life of your firing pin by absorbing the shock caused by dry firing. They are ideal for training and safe handling of your firearm.

- Sold in blister packs of 20 sockets

Directions for use

Insert shock absorber cartridges, also called handling cartridges , into the cylinder or chamber of your firearm as you would standard ammunition. Dry fire with peace of mind, knowing that the firing pin is protected from direct impact.
