A high-performance and discreet blade

Forged from 8Cr13MoV stainless steel, the RAV-2's Drop Point blade combines long-lasting sharpness, corrosion resistance, and ease of maintenance. Its black oxide finish reduces glare and effectively protects against oxidation, ideal for covert or tactical environments.

Lightweight and ergonomic handle

The aluminum handle offers excellent grip, enhanced by a textured grip. Its centered balance between the index and middle fingers facilitates maneuverability, even during prolonged use. Its robust construction guarantees good resistance to shocks and varied conditions.

Quick opening and guaranteed security

The liner lock secures the blade in the open position, while the spring-assisted system allows for smooth, one-handed deployment. The discreet belt clip is reversible, easily adapting to all users and configurations.

A minimalist EDC, ready for anything

The RAV-2 folding knife stands out for its functional simplicity: no superfluous elements, just the essentials for reliable, fast, and efficient use. Perfect for professional, tactical environments, or for minimalist EDC enthusiasts.
