Drop Point blade, two-material handle: a reliable and discreet EDC.

The Real Avid RAV-3 is a compact, efficient folding knife designed for intensive daily use. It features a 8.25 cm drop-point blade made of 8Cr13MoV steel, protected by a black oxide finish to limit glare and prevent corrosion. Its handle combines lightweight aluminum and robust stainless steel, for an ideal balance between comfort and durability. The assisted opening mechanism allows for rapid deployment, secured by a liner lock. Understated, tactical, and handy, the RAV-3 is a reliable cutting tool, ready for all the challenges of everyday life.
