Ultra-sharp Tanto blade and technical handle for demanding missions.

The Real Avid RAV-6 folding knife combines technical sophistication and power in a compact size. Its 8.6 cm Tanto blade made of 8Cr13MoV steel with a titanium finish excels at both piercing and cutting. The lightweight handle, combining aluminum and carbon fiber, offers optimal grip and excellent durability. Equipped with an assisted opening system and a liner lock, the RAV-6 deploys quickly and securely. Robust, precise, and modern, it is perfect for professional users, tactical users, or demanding EDC enthusiasts.

The Real Avid RAV-6 folding knife is designed for those looking for a powerful and reliable cutting tool, without compromising on maneuverability. Its precision-ground Tanto blade is formidable for punctures and clean cuts, ideal in tactical environments or emergency situations.

A blade cut for action

Made of 8Cr13MoV stainless steel with a titanium finish, the blade resists corrosion, abrasion and mechanical stress. Its Tanto profile optimizes penetration, perfect for piercing resistant materials such as thick textiles, leather or reinforced packaging.

Ultra-efficient hybrid handle

The aluminum and carbon fiber handle combines strength and lightness, while providing excellent feedback. Its textured surface allows for a secure grip, even with gloves or in wet conditions. Its index finger balance improves control and precision.

Quick opening, enhanced security

The liner lock mechanism effectively locks the blade once opened. Thanks to the assisted opening, deployment is quick and smooth with one hand. A reversible metal clip allows discreet and accessible

Demanding and stylish EDC

Compact yet formidable, the RAV-6 is designed for professionals, survivalists, and lovers of beautiful knives. Its sleek, modern design blends perfectly with tactical gear or versatile outdoor equipment.
