AIMPOINT is the benchmark brand in aiming assistance for the military sector.

The CompM5 is intended for shooters looking for a robust, light and compact red dot, capable of withstanding the harshest treatment.

With its low plate compatible for picatinny / weaver rails, the CompM5 will be perfect for mounting on an AR or AK platform.

Its 2 MoA red dot with adjustable intensity allows both precise shots thanks to the fineness of the point but also rapid and instinctive shots thanks to the great clarity of the optics.
