Whether you are replacing a worn part or looking to upgrade your 1911, this ejector provides stable, reliable performance for successful shooting sessions.

The ejector for 1911 is a crucial component for the proper functioning of your weapon. Located in the slide, it acts in synergy with the extractor to expel the spent case after firing, allowing for smooth reloading. A high-performance ejector is essential to avoid firing incidents and ensure an optimal mechanical cycle.

Compatible with Colt 70 series pistols.
