Strong, reliable and ergonomic: the Heavy Duty QD sling attachment is designed to secure your movements with confidence.

The Daniel Defense Heavy Duty Push Button Sling Attachment is a must-have accessory for professionals and sport shooters. Compatible with Quick Detach (QD) systems, it ensures a quick, secure and durable attachment of your sling to your weapon, even in the most demanding conditions.

- 31mm buckle.
- Hardened and phosphated treatment.

The Daniel Defense Heavy Duty QD Sling Attachment with Push Button is specially designed to provide a robust and reliable solution for professional and amateur shooters. Made of premium steel, it ensures exceptional durability while maintaining a low weight. The Quick Detach (QD) system allows for quick assembly and disassembly, ideal for tactical adjustments on the fly.

Its push-button mechanism ensures simple and intuitive use, with a secure lock that prevents accidental detachment. The attachment is compatible with most standard QD attachment systems, offering great versatility for different sling and weapon configurations.

The matte black finish coating resists corrosion and scratches, ensuring optimum longevity even in the harshest environments. Whether you are on a tactical mission or in competition, this accessory is designed to meet your highest demands.
