The Daniel Defense QD Swivel Attachment Point is a practical and robust solution for modern tactical setups. Made of 6061-T6 aluminum, this accessory ensures exceptional durability while remaining lightweight. It easily mounts to Picatinny rails thanks to its secure mounting system. The included Quick Detach (QD) swivel allows for quick detachment and attachment of your sling, providing ultimate flexibility on missions or in competition. The secure lock prevents accidental detachment, ensuring confident use. Its low-profile design and corrosion-resistant Type III anodized finish extend its durability, even in extreme conditions.

This attachment point is perfect for shooters looking for a modular and reliable solution for their tactical slings and accessories.
