The Toor Knives Specter-R Dagger "Socom" stands out for its functional design and robust construction, ideal for tactical environments and covert interventions. Its symmetrical blade made of high-quality steel, sharpened on both sides, guarantees fast and precise penetration, even through resistant materials.

The "Socom" tactical black finish effectively reduces glare to remain invisible in the field. The advanced ergonomics of the textured G10 handle allow for a firm and secure grip, even in difficult conditions.

Designed for discreet carry and rapid deployment, this dagger comes with a form-fitting Kydex sheath that is compatible with MOLLE systems. Its compact size and balanced weight make it ideal for close-quarters combat or high-pressure missions.

Aimed at professional operators, special forces and tactical equipment enthusiasts, the Specter-R Dagger combines functional aesthetics with formidable efficiency.
