The Jank Shank S "Phantom Gray" from Toor Knives is designed for missions where stealth and efficiency are paramount. Its high-grade steel blade ensures excellent edge retention and increased corrosion resistance, ideal for precise cutting tasks and emergency situations.

The "Phantom Gray" finish reduces reflections, ensuring a low visual signature in operation. The handle, designed for optimal ergonomics, offers a firm and comfortable grip, even with gloves or in wet environments.

With a total length of 6 inches, this knife is easy to carry and discreet. Supplied with a fitted Kydex sheath, it allows for secure transport and quick access, compatible with MOLLE systems for easy integration into your tactical gear.

Whether you are a security professional, military personnel or outdoor enthusiast, the Jank Shank S "Phantom Gray" is a reliable and high-performance tool, ready to accompany you in all your missions.

Technology: TDT: multiple heat treatment and thermal normalization outside oxygen and cryogenic finishing to harden the external austenitic steel. The guarantee of an ultra-regular molecular structure and maximum hardness.

MicraCoat surface treatment: Maximum anti-corrosion protection thanks to a thermal multi-layer application. Minimal thickness for exceptional protection.

Dynamic Fluting Handle: a multi-axial sculpted structure that ensures both comfort of grip and perfect knife grip.
