Technical Glossary

- Cerakote : Ceramic coating applied to metal surfaces to improve resistance to wear, corrosion and impact.
- “Pro Forces” stock : Ergonomic stock designed for optimal grip, even with one hand, adapted to the needs of law enforcement.

Standards and Certifications

The Martial FR complies with current French regulations, classified in category C thanks to its rifled barrel. It is essential to respect local laws regarding the acquisition and possession of this weapon.

Comparison with other models

Compared to the standard Martial FR model, this limited edition stands out with its blue Cerakote finish, offering superior protection against the elements and a unique aesthetic. In addition, the possibility of adding a STD-MIL 1913 Picatinny rail without modification expands the customization options for the user.

Compatible Accessories

- STD-MIL 1913 Picatinny Rail : Allows the installation of additional optics or tactical accessories.
- Tactical sling : Facilitates the transport and handling of the weapon during operations.
- Reinforced carrying case : Provides optimal protection when transporting or storing the weapon.
