WBPA125	Lower handguard	Vente libre	-	21mm rail	125.00 € incl. tax

The upper handguard incorporates the gas tube.

The upper handguard is designed with the gas tube directly integrated and topped with a Picatinny rail along its entire length for the addition of optics. The lower handguard is also equipped with a Picatinny rail for the addition of tactical accessories (handle, lamp, laser, etc.)

???? Are the handguards sold together or separately?

They are grouped under the same product sheet, but each handguard is sold separately. You can choose to buy one or the other according to your needs.

???? Is this system compatible with other AK models?

No, these handguards are designed exclusively for the WBP Mini-Jack.

???? Are any specific tools required for installation?

No, installation is simple and only requires standard tools for replacing handguards.

???? Can heavy accessories be attached to Picatinny rails?

Yes, the robustness of the structure allows the addition of heavy optics or bipods without compromising stability.
