The AR chambered in 22 Lr compact with its red dot and silencer

The complete pack for fun shooting on gongs or pins.

With its SAK silencer and the use of subsonic ammunition, the DMK22C offers incredible acoustic performance.

The DMK22's manufacturing quality, and particularly its internal mechanics, allows it to accept all types of 22Lr ammunition on the market. Despite its semi-automatic system, its cycling is perfect regardless of the ammunition used, even at high rates.
