A very high quality bullet !!

Every bullet that Sierra makes is held to the highest standards.

Sierra is constantly trying to improve efficiency and ergonomics to maintain the tradition of precision.

Pro-Hunter Bullets: All bullet shapes in this classification are flat-bottomed and include round nose (RN), semi-point (SMP), spitzer point (SPT), flat nose (FN), and hollow point (HP/FN). A few bullets in this category feature Sierra's exclusive Power Jacket to improve bullet expansion into game when fired from medium velocity cartridges. All of these bullets are medium to heavy weight in each caliber and are designed for a combination of penetration and expansion in medium and heavy game for their calibers.
